Good Day Fellow Elementary Principals! Your State Delegates will be heading to Washington DC to attend the National Leaders Conference and then to visit our Congressional Representatives! This conference is one of the best opportunities to get together with other states around Policy Development at the National Level. One presentation that all participants will hear is titled "How to Hug a Porcupine: Relationship Building with Lawmakers and Why It's Important! I will let you know how it goes!

NATIONAL LEADERS CONFERENCE

NAESP's National Leaders Conference (NLC) gathers nearly 200 elementary and middle-level principal leaders from across the country in the nation's capital to sharpen their leadership skills and advocate for schools on Capitol Hill.
